The Eurasia Center and its Eurasian Business Coalition

The Eurasian Business Coalition (EBC) is an alliance of business from America, Europe and Asia (Eurasia) who have joined together to promote investment, trade, and cooperation between the nations of East and West. EBC, an independent, 501(c)non-profit organization, is an association of top trade and economic organizations and specialists who analyze and advise business executives, companies, and entrepreneurs on important commercial issues in order to promote free trade and business among companies in America, Europe, and Asia.

The Coalition has formed under The Eurasia Center in order to assist companies in understanding the new changes in world trade and deal with the practical aspects of doing business in the 59 countries of Eurasia. EBC's members range from Fortune 500 Corporations to small- and mid-size firms throughout America, Europe, and Asia. Each member realizes that in order to build and develop a positive business environment where its products and services can become established and thrive, bridges and coalitions must be formed to strengthen bonds that will not break even in times of crises. These bridges can only serve to strengthen the fundamental business interests of each member abroad.

EBC strives to provide businesses with key analysis and advices through the following activities:

- Research*
- Publications*
- Lecture Series*
- Economic Analyses*
- Business Conferences*
- Executive Consultation*
- Policy Recommendations*
- Establishing Real Trade Connections*

“Evening with the Embassy” Series

The “Evening with the Embassies” series establishes even more meaningful and long-term relationships with the various Ambassadors and their key Embassy personnel. Incorporated into this goal is hosting one “Evening” per month for each of the 59 nations recognized by The Eurasia Center. This effort further establishes The Eurasia Center and its Eurasia Business Coalition as the leaders in Washington, D.C. and abroad for ever increasing communications, understanding, investments, trade, and travel between Eurasia and America.

Participation in the monthly “Evening with the Embassy” is actively promoted to key American investors, businesses, high technology firms, economic developers, bankers, government officials, educators, research science institutes, and non-governmental organizations. All size organizations are taking meaningful part in the monthly events as well as becoming active members of the Eurasian Business Coalition (EBC) with automatic membership in The Eurasia Center.

EBC's Research Efforts:

The Coalition will conduct important research on the following issues:

- The Future of Trade with Russia*
- Developing Long-Term Business Opportunities in China*
- Investing in Central Europe*
- Japan, Korea, China, Taiwan, and Vietnam in the New Eurasia*
- The Effects of the WTO on Business Intellectual Property Rights and Patent Protection*

EBC invites specialists from America, Europe and Asia to join together and contribute to the Center's Coalition's research, publications, and lectures. The Coalition welcomes interested companies and individuals to participate in its efforts.
